

PROPERTY OF : Ana Martinez 9-4

Dear Ana,
Well, we've had a lotta fun this year. To bad you got in some much trouble so stay out of it next year so we can go out and have a lotta fun. I hope you get your car!
Keep in touch this summer!
Love Maryann

Dear Ana,
It's been a long year. Remember our 1st SH. dance. I'll never forgive you for setting me up w/ that jerk. Anyway, thank for being a friend.
Love,
Helen

Dear ana,
It's been fun

this year I'm glad we became friends. Good luck with the guys this summer, you better be able to go out, or I'll kill you!

I'll call you & we can go out, if you have to sneak out anyway you're a sweetie, and a cutie. I know we'll stay friends

Luv ya
MOS

Dear Anns,

I'm really glad that Mr. Magoo put me in your group. We've had many laughs in the short time we've know each other. I'll never forget u + this class. at least not for a while.

Love Always
Carlin

Anna,
I'm glad we became friends. you are a really nice person. I have a great summer and don't party too hard. Love ya

Paula Joyce

Dear Ana —

IT'S BEEN WILD //

you're really cool & shit
but you're momma dresse's you funny (J/K) I'm glad that I met you & we will always get spoiled (happiness) Stay sweet & all — give me a call if you ain't grounded & we'll do something that will get you grounded.
Later.

Love ya,

Cathy

Ana,
this year was cool. maybe thing will be better next year.
call me when you're not grounded in about 10 yrs. we've gotta go out. Love ya,
993-6020 margi

Summer and don't pass out.
Day 3 together. Have a great anyway. I hope we have another cool well homeroom was so to remember of +

Hi Ana,
Hey girl! What's up? Well it's finally over!

I can't believe it! I remember the first day of school, I sat
next to you in homeroom & I decided that I wanted to be friends! Well I know we're not really close, but we had some great times!

I won't tell you to stay cute & sweet & funny
cause you're not (YK)
& besides it sounds like shit! Love ya -

VOLLEYBALL-C.G.A.L. CHAMPIONS

The varsity volleyball team had a fantastic season. They were undefeated in all of their league games plus the Catholic Girls Athletic League playoffs. They beat St. Rose in an exciting finale to receive the C.G.A.L. championship. Varsity: Left: Mary Hopper, Nina Salerno, Dierdre Kennedy, Michelle Hopper, Colleen Murphy, Coach Dan Gellerman, Cathy Emmons, Ingrid Schaub, Andrea Dennehy, Christine Emmons, JoAnne Walsh.

On October 8, 1983, the volleyball teams in association with Dan Gellerman held the second annual volleyball clinic. Girls from many different grammar schools throughout the city attended and became much more skilled in their volleyball abilities.

CHEERS TO THE

The Spirit Squad at Mercy High School has always been fantastic in both routines and leading the crowd at sporting events, and this year has certainly been no exception. The Song Girls, led by Jiwanah Totah, the Cheerleaders, led by Kelly McNaughton, and the Mascots, led by Wilhemina Lacuesta have combined to provide original entertainment for everyone.

TO CREW

OR NOT TO CREW

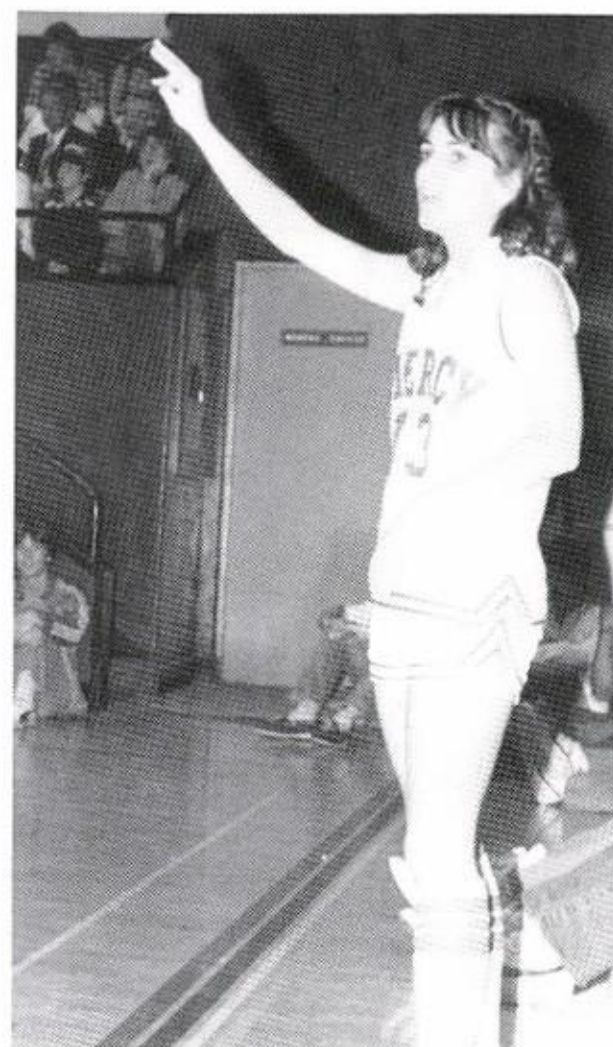

The Crew Team at Mercy High is characterized by dedication, responsibility and hard work. Crew has been active for three years and in that short time they have gained the respect of crew teams at such schools as Stanford and U.C. Berkeley. Under the direction of Bebe Bryans, Mercy's crew has become one of the most competitive teams in Northern California.

Top: Crew shows their comraderie. Left: Not only does the crew team put their legs into their work, they also put their elbows into it. Above: Late afternoon and weekend practices create a dedicated crew team at Mercy High. *OPPOSITE PAGE. VARSITY SHOOTS FOR VICTORY

The 1984 Basketball teams are by far the most talented group of players in the city. The varsity introduced their season with a hair-raising last second win over St. Ro Rose. The Junior Varsity did not do as well, but that was only one game. Coach Bill Bush, assisted by Mr. Kerwin did an excellent job of guiding the girls to a successful season. This year was the first year Bill Bush took over as head coach for both basketball teams. He is a very dedicated coach and has spent hours computing statistics of other teams. Mercy played to their absolute potential this year. Congratulations!

FANS FOREVER

The sports program here at Mercy High School is an activity that includes virtually all Mercy High School students, whether they be participating athletes, spectators, or members of the Rally Squad. Our gratitude is earned by the many coaches who donate so much of their time to the advancement of our sports program. Ms. Ortiz has paid off her many hours by having a successful season. Dan Gellerman's patience with the girls has made it all worth his while, since the volleyball teams had a great season. The fans participate in the sports program just as much as the Spirit Squad and athletes. The fans show much spirit and dedication to our team and our school.

ALUMNAE ACTIVE AT MERCY

The Alumnae at Mercy High School has been very active. Among their many projects which have helped to promote and support Mercy High were a Computer Faire and a special showing of the Vatican exhibit. The Computer Faire was an attempt to introduce the computer to novices and offer an opportunity for "hands-on" exposure. The Alumnae also arranged a special showing of the Vatican Exhibit at the De Young museum as an education outreach to the community.

Among other events sponsored by the Alumnae were a Career Day at Mercy and the Senior Tea.

GIRL'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The G.A.A. club at Mercy is by far the most popular organization in the school. The club has approximately 250 members, those girls who wish to either belong to the athletic groups at Mercy or to show their support or school spirit by attending the games.

BLOCK CLUB

Mercy Block Club members have worked hard over the past four years to earn their blocks. A lot of time and effort has gone into playing sports and cheering; the block is their reward.

PEP SQUAD

This is the first year Mercy has had a pep squad and they are a great asset to the team. They inspire the fans at games and motivate students to come to the games. The club also cheers the team on to victory. President; Ira Williams. Moderator; Ms. Lagomarsino.

SERVICE CLUB

The Service Club at Mercy High School was very dedicated and successful in their efforts to provide service for the community. Led by Ms. True, these girls provided many gifts at Christmas time for hundreds of needy children. They also arranged a Christmas party for these children and their foster parents who were very appreciative.

Above: Officers; President, Stephanie Garber, Vice President, Jill Kilmartin, Secretary-Treasurer, Tina Chan. Moderator of the Service Club: Ms. Mary True.

PEACE AND JUSTICE CLUB

The 1983-1984 was the first year for the Mercy High School Peace and Justice club. Mr. Bruce Colville, Mr. Jonathan Frank, and Mr. Marty De Julia are credited with originating this very successful and active club.

In their first year of existence the club sponsored a "Racism Awareness Week" culminating in the showing of the movie, American Pictures. The Peace and Justice club also was instrumental in organizing a week long observance of the strife in Central America. Several retreats were also planned to discuss such current topics as nuclear war and the draft.

Right: Officers President, Anna Remedios, Vice President, Stephanie Garber, Secretary-Treasurer, Carolyn DeVolder. Moderator and Originator of the Peace and Justice Club: Mr. Bruce Colville.

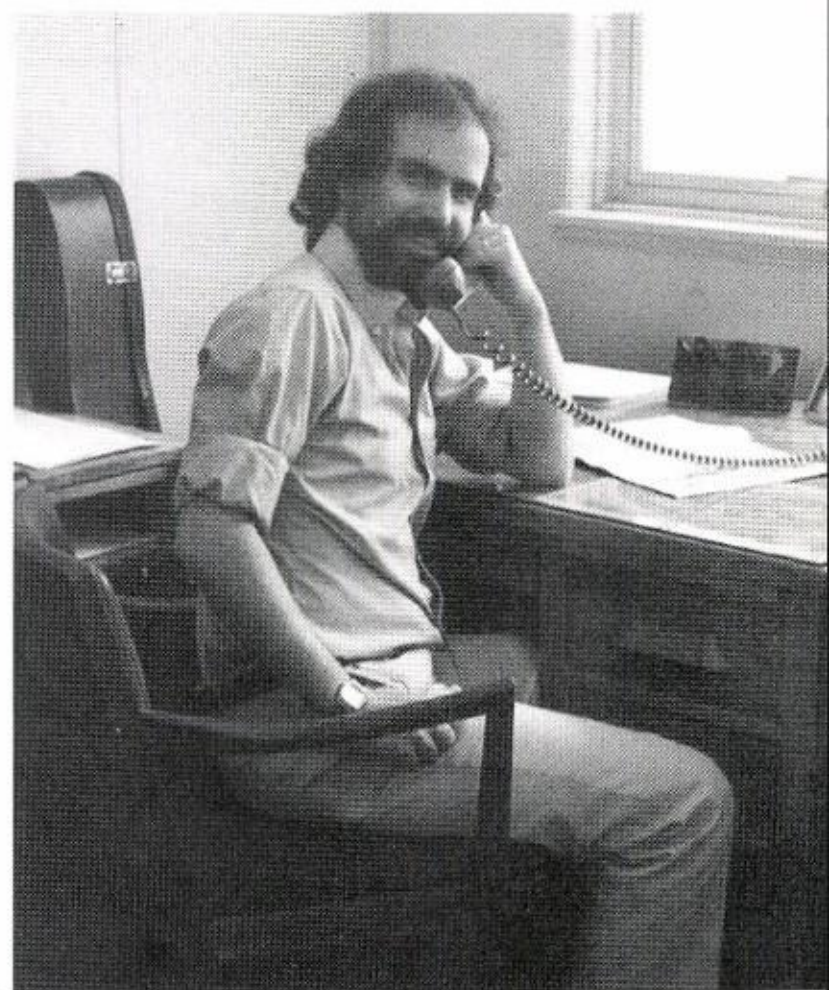

CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP

The purpose behind the Christian Leadership classes was to create a Christian Community at Mercy High School. This class has been active for five years at Mercy. It was responsible for Mercy Day, Spring Day and Teacher-Look-Alike Day. The Advanced Seminar was composed of those girls who were in the class the previous year and who chose to remain to provide experienced leadership for the rest of the Christian Leadership class.

ADVANCED SEMINAR

Moderator: Mr. Dan Pasini.

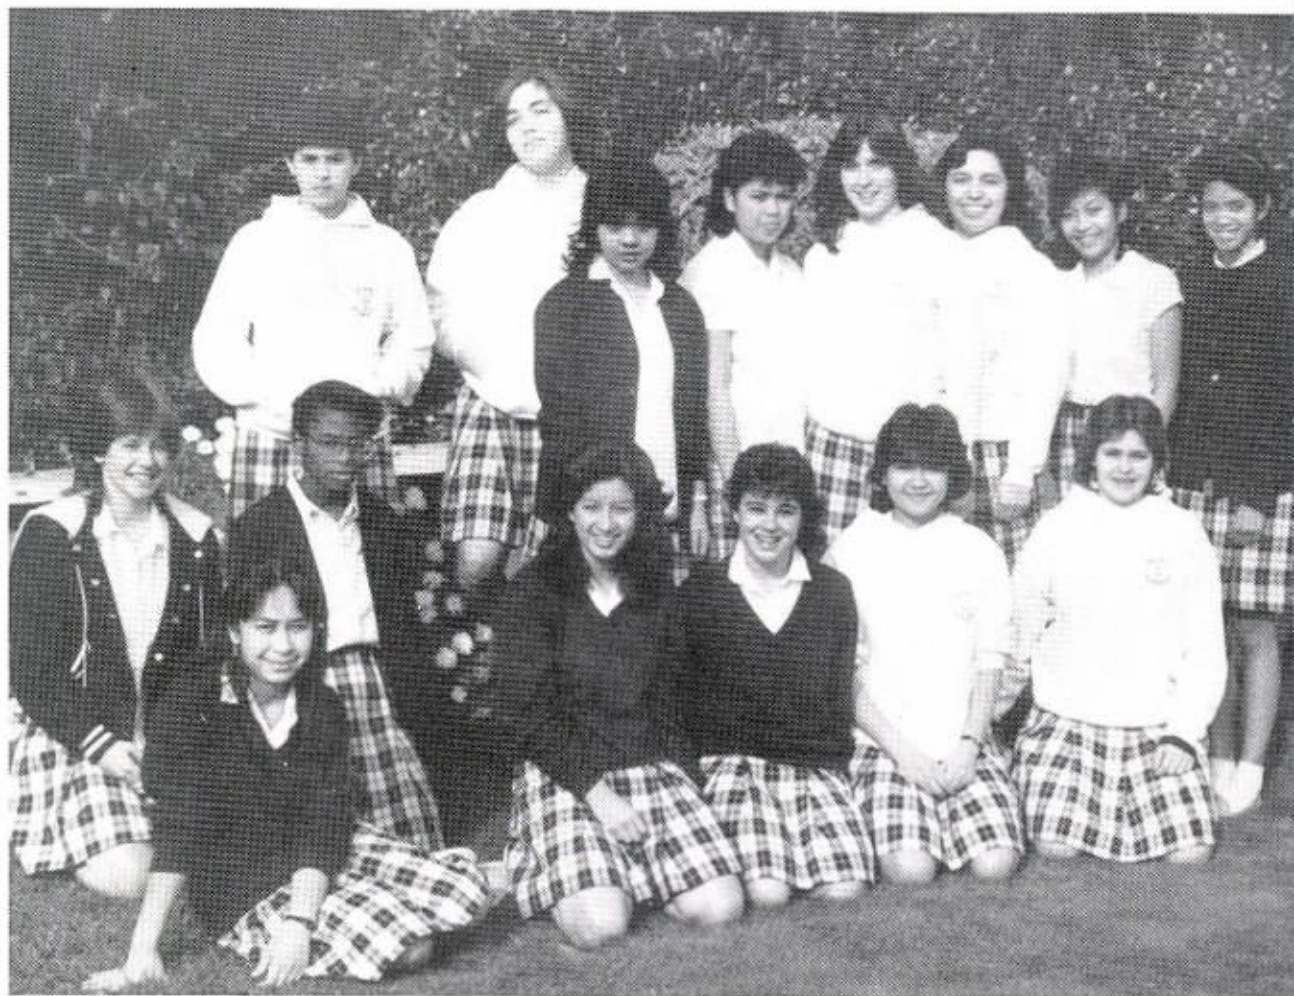

SKI CLUB

The ski club has been at Mercy for four years and their purpose is to offer the girls a chance to get away to the snow and enjoy the thrills of skiing. They arrange bus rides to Tahoe, room and board, all at discount prices. Everyone who has experienced a trip will agree they are a blast!

President; Nora Martin, Vice-President; Laura Kadlicek. Secretary; Molly Waal. Treasurer; Ana Burke.

The bowling club was formed for girls who like to bowl and those who have an interest and want to get involved. The girls meet on a regular basis to practice and improve their game. The afternoons spent bowling were a time to improve their game and socialize with both boys and girls.

President; Lydia Fanucci.

BOWLING CLUB

PEER COUNSELING

Peer Counseling has been in action at Mercy for five years. Starting with eight members its number now totals sixty-seven girls dedicated to giving up their free time to assist their fellow students.

Right: Officers: President Flo Mendosa, Vice-President: Joanna Jew, Secretary-treasurer: Marilou Ferrer, Newsletter: Carla Nuti, Head training officer: Patty Finnegan; Moderator: Dan Pasini.

CSF

Officers: President: Carla Nuti, Secretary-Treasurer: Nikki Staniotes, Senior Representative: Stephanie Garber, Junior Representative: Camile Centro, Freshman Representative: Grace Mogannam and Elizabeth Centro.

ITALIAN CLUB

The Italian Club had a great year and had enjoyed many activities. The girls were able to get in touch with their ethnic background. Thanks to the moderator Ms. Mohammed and the club president Elisa Mack.

IRISH CLUB

Italian Club President; Elisa Mack. Irish Club President; Aileen Kilgariff, Vice-president; Cathy Doyle, Sec.-Treas.; Shannon Murphy.

The Irish Club is for girls from an Irish background and for those who would like to be. This year the club sang songs for the Shriners at Christmas, showed the film the Quiet Man, and threw a party on St. Patty's Day. It was a very productive year and a fun year too!

ASIAN CLUB

Mercy's Asian Club has had another great and exciting year. They have accomplished many things and this included contributing to the Thanksgiving Food Drive.

Moderator: Mr. Leo Marshall, President: Lillian Raposa.

BLACK STUDENT UNION

The Black Student Union is a cohesive group. They have achieved many of their goals and, besides having fun, they have studied the cultural background of Black Americans. Moderators; Ms. Jackie Mills-Lord and Mr. Martin DeJulia. President; Jenny Toler.

CHORELIERS

The Choreliers had a great performing year. During Christmas they performed at the Sheraton Palace Hotel, Stoestown, and ended with the Christmas Concert. They sang at Riordan High School for the mass celebration for the 100th anniversary of the Marianists order, Arch-Bishop Quinn said the mass. During the Fine Arts Festival the Choreliers gave a musical tribute to the music of the 20's, 30's, and 40's. Glee Club also put on a spring concert. The Mercy spirit makes itself known in their voices. The moderator of both groups is Mr. Tony Eiras.

GLEE

THE WAVE

Production of The Wave is now in it's second year. The student body of Mercy High is kept abreast of top breaking news thanks to the efforts of the reporting staff of The Wave.

The Performing Arts Association incorporates all those students interested in performing or producing plays and musicals. This year we were delighted with Shakespeare's As You Like It, set in the Haight-Ashbury, and the Broadway hit Gypsy.

PERFORMING ARTS ASSOCIATION

The Mercy High School Speech Club had a wonderful year in both tournaments and individual improvements. Nina Salerno placed second in the Lion's Club tournament and Teresa Arriaga did exceptionally well in the Ranch-Cotati tournament. Many thanks to Vie Epperson, the moderator.

SPEECH CLUB

PHOTO CLUB

The Mercy Photo Club is by far the most successful organization here at Mercy High School. The photo club has worked hard to develop their photography skills and provide Mercy with permanent memories.

DANCE COMMITTEE

Mercy's 1983-1984 Dance Committee shimmied and bopped it's way through the year with a variety of fun, exciting and successful dances. Despite the fact that some girls couldn't attend the dances they had an unusually huge turn-out. Many thanks to Ms. Log for her leadership.

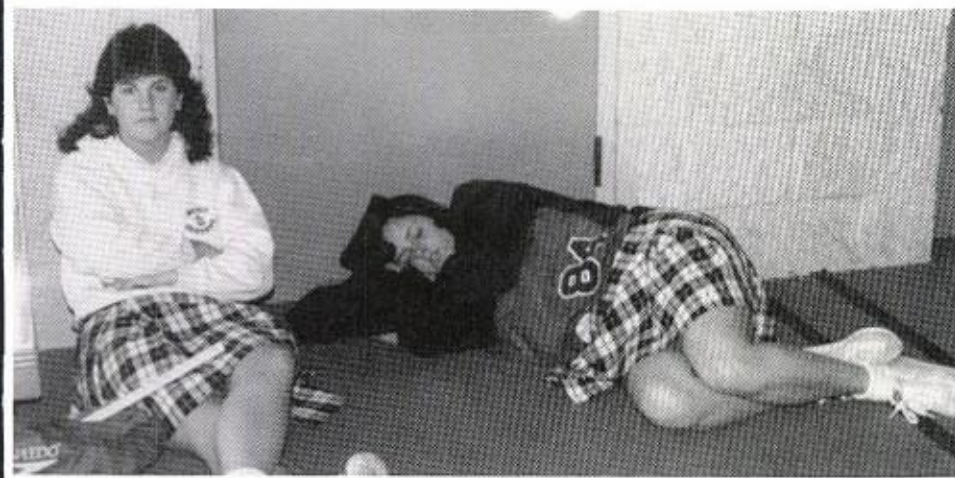

Hola Amigos! The Latin Spice Club of Mercy High had a very full schedule in the school year. The Latin Spice Club was responsible for dozens of exciting ethnic activities which are too numerous to name, under the guidance and leadership of Rebeca Moran, the club President.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council this year did an outstanding job running the school. Their exciting activities included: Spirit week, school fund raisers and on the whole keeping the morale of the school up. The student body officers were really great. They decorated the school for holidays, and gave personal recognition on birthdays by decorating lockers. Ms. Log kept her patience and understanding throughout the year as Student Activities Director.

On September 16, 1983 Mercy and freshman celebrated Big Sister-Little Sister Day. After weeks of dreaming up an original costume, the Big Sisters presented their Little Sisters with outfits that could only be found in a fantasy. Everywhere embarrassed Freshman were seen hiding their faces as stares and laughs were sent their way by older classmates. After school the talent show was the place to see dancers, singers, a baby food eating contest, and the baby skippers. Alive with excitement the sister teams headed out for an educational night on the town. Memories of Pier 39, Baker's Beach, ice skating, and football games helped to start these Mercy years off right.

BELONG WE WHERE UP

Love did help to lift us "Up Where We Belong" as the Mercy community celebrated together Mercy Day on September 23, 1983. This special day started out with a mass in Barret Hall and then everyone moved to the theatre where they cheered for our spirit squads, volleyball and tennis teams, and the new team of male cheerleaders. Then a little history about Mercy was revealed through a slide show which started in the fifties and moved to the eighties. Following, all the girls were free to compete in the egg toss or stuff themselves with food. Meanwhile our Mercy nuns enjoyed a lunch prepared especially for them in thanksgiving for all they do. The Christian Leadership class did an excellent job in helping everyone remember our Mercy Sisters as we celebrated with them on their joyous day.

WELCOME WEEK

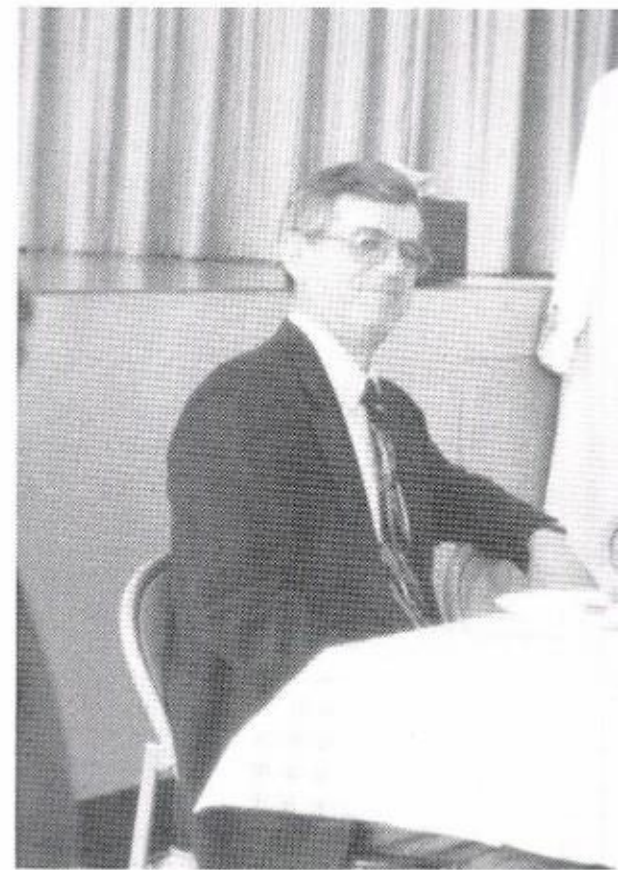

September 19 to September 23, 1983, was Welcome Week at Mercy High. This was a time for each club to present a booth telling everyone about their club activities and then trying to get as many girls as possible to join. Each class had a day to have a fundraiser. The Seniors started out the week with face painting, Tuesday the Juniors sold balloons and the Sophomores sold pretzels to everybody on Wednesday. This was a great week when spirit was built-up among the clubs and classes. The student body and class officers all deserve a round of applause for making Welcome Week so successful!

MOTHER DAUGHTER COMMUNION BREAKFAST

On October 9, 1983, Mercy High School mothers and daughters had a chance to come together at the communion breakfast. The morning started with a liturgy led by Father Miles Riley. He had a unique way of showing his love by passing potatoes to the girls who then passed them on to their mothers. After mass the fathers served an excellent breakfast to the mothers and daughters. This year the breakfast was unique because it was held in the fall instead of the spring. This was nice because it gave the mothers a chance to meet each other early in the year.

CENSORED

Each year Mercy's yearbook committee tries their best to pick pictures that will make our yearbook look impressive. This year we decided to put in a page of our "censored" pictures to show the REAL girls at Mercy High.

The Junior Ring Ceremony held on October 14, 1983, was an occasion the Class of '85 will be sure to remember. On this day the Juniors were lauded as "upperclassmen" and were officially invited to the Red and White Ball. Mr. Pasini spoke about the importance of friends and set the spirit for the exchange of roses which symbolized love and friendship among the girls. To conclude the ceremony, a singing telegram was sent to all the Juniors from Tara Edwards and Adrianne Collins to wish everyone a happy Junior Day.

THE ROSE was the theme for this year's Christian Leadership retreat. Seventy girls left on Thursday afternoon for a weekend in which they would learn about themselves, their family, their friends, and their God. This was learned through large and small group discussions along with time for each girl to be alone to reflect. Mr. Pasini and the other faculty members put a lot of time and effort into making this year's retreat an unforgettable one. Thanks!

EXOTIC EROTIC DAY AT MERCY HIGH

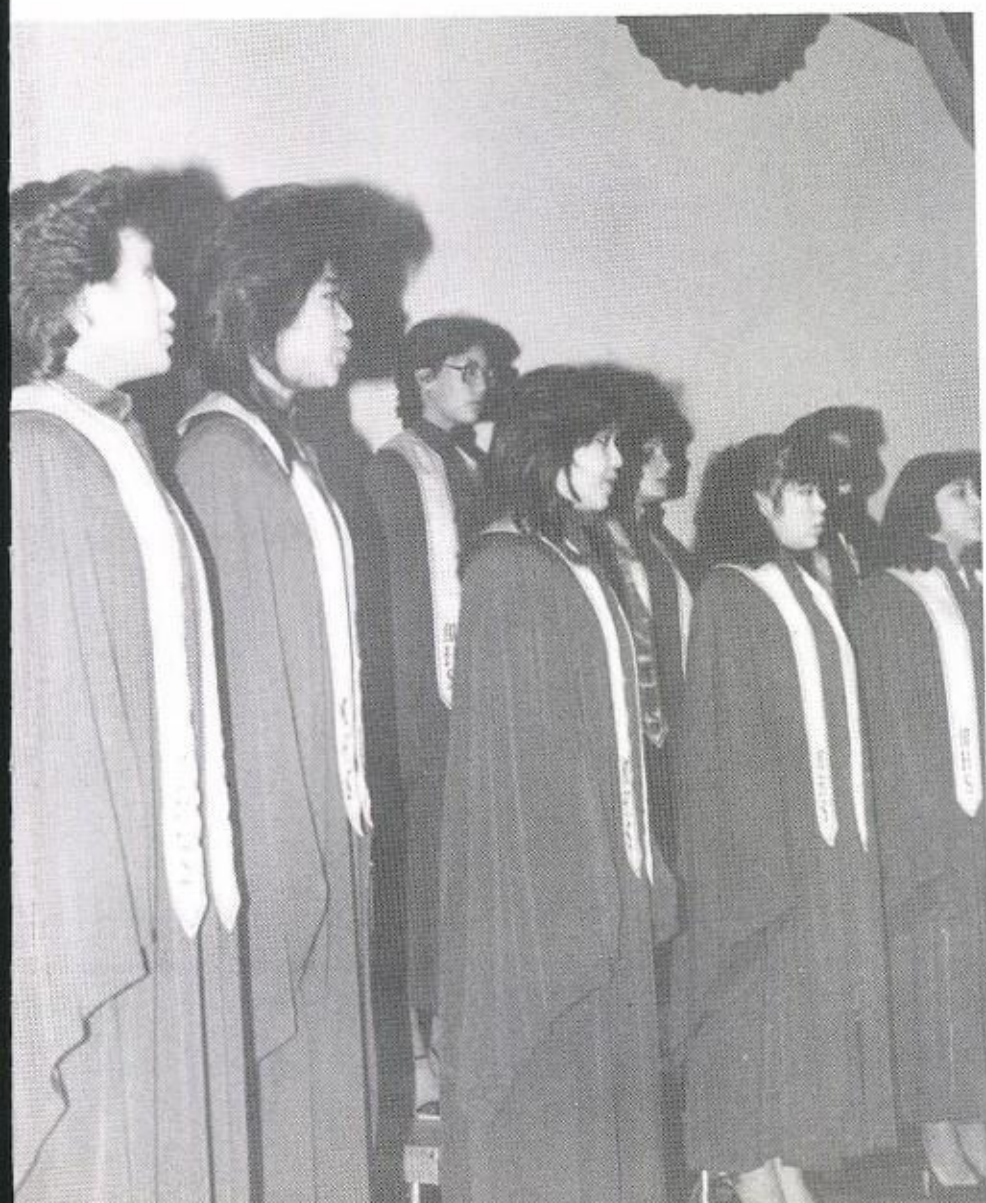

On October 31, 1983, Mercy girls traded in their plaid skirts for some exotic and erotic costumes. Halloween has never been so wild before at good old Mercy High. Teachers and students alike participated in this traditional holiday. The spirit of this day seemed exceptionally high as everyone laughed at their friends who were dressed in unusual attire.

The Choraliers and Glee added sparkle to the Holiday season on December 7, 1983. The Glee and Choraliers gave their renditions of the most popular Christmas songs under the direction of Tony Eiras.

“AS YOU LIKE IT”

This year Mercy High School's drama department presented As You Like It, William Shakespeare's play about life in it's many varied aspects. The play is set in 1968 Haight-Ashbury and shows the effect of love in a variety of individuals: high-spirited Rosalind; brave and desperate Orlando; witty Touchstone; down-to-earth Audrey; faithful and loyal Silvius; and selfish Celia. As You Like It was a play of merriment and good humor and Mercy's cast and crews hoped that the play would please us and it did!

SKIPPERS

Mercy started the Christmas season off well this year. The freshman class showed their spirit by elaborately decorating the front lobby. Everyone joined together to embellish their homerooms with creative decorations, and brought the Christmas spirit alive at Mercy. The girls counted the days until vacation with the Muppets rendition of The Twelve Days Of Christmas.

FROM FRANCE TO DANCE

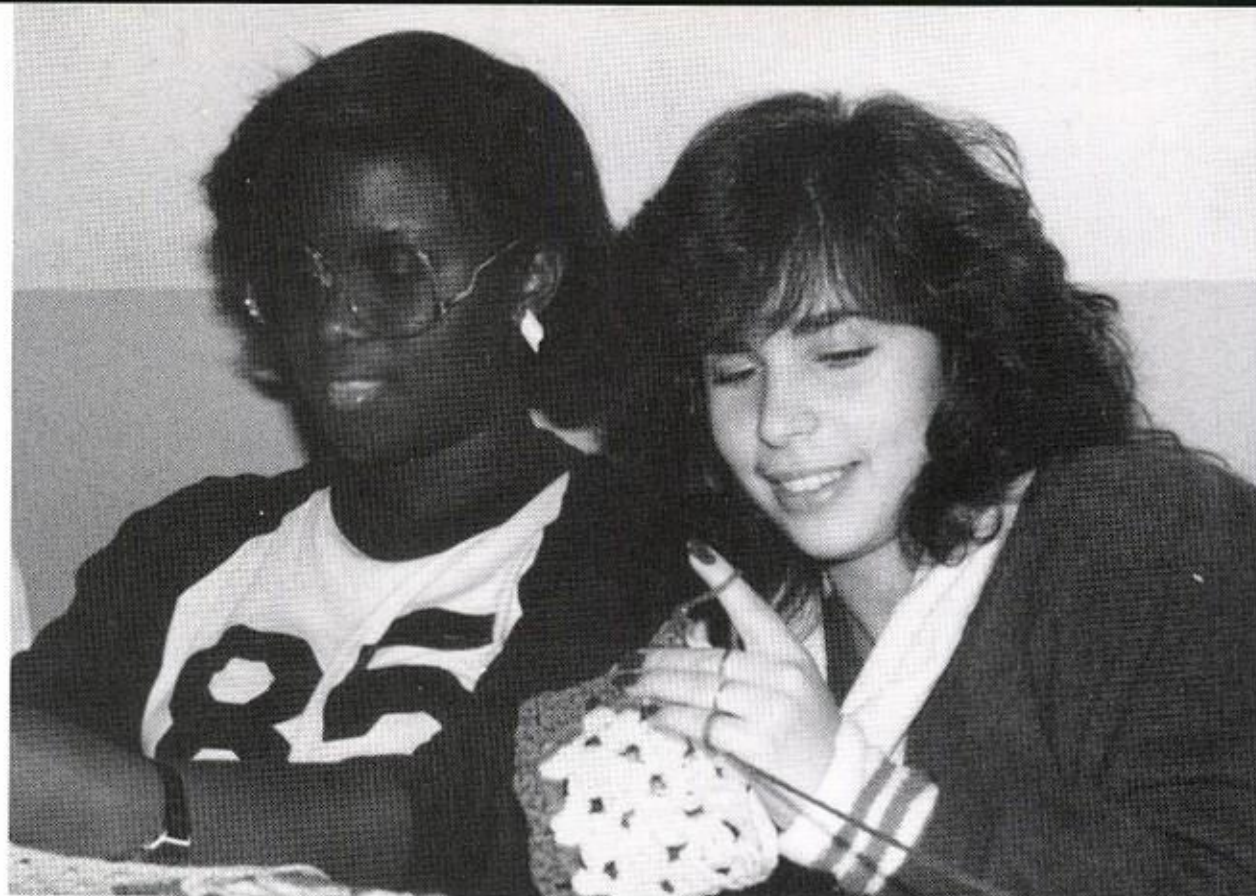

Intersession is offered to the girls every other year. All classes are offered during the first two weeks of the new year and most students participate in the program during this time. There was a wide range of classes available. They ranged from dancercise to calligraphy, "Face Fashion and Flair" to cooking.

Left: Soraya Dahud undergoes a change of style. Bottom Left: Teresa Dermitzakis showed classic grace on the stage. Bottom Center: Meyvelyn Chan modeled latest in cotton T's. Bottom Right: Lynda Herrera gave her rendition of a 1980's Southern belle. OPPOSITE PAGE. Top: Students enjoyed the refreshments as well as the vintage movies in "Hooray for Hollywood." Center Left: Sabrina Rodriguez practices her sign language. Center Right: Patty and Joanne look on as the speaker "talks" to them in sign language. Bottom Left: Elizabeth Azinheira was anxious to see what classic movie would appear on the television. Bottom Right: Lisa Rocco and Eileen Murphy learn the finer points to relaxation and meditation.

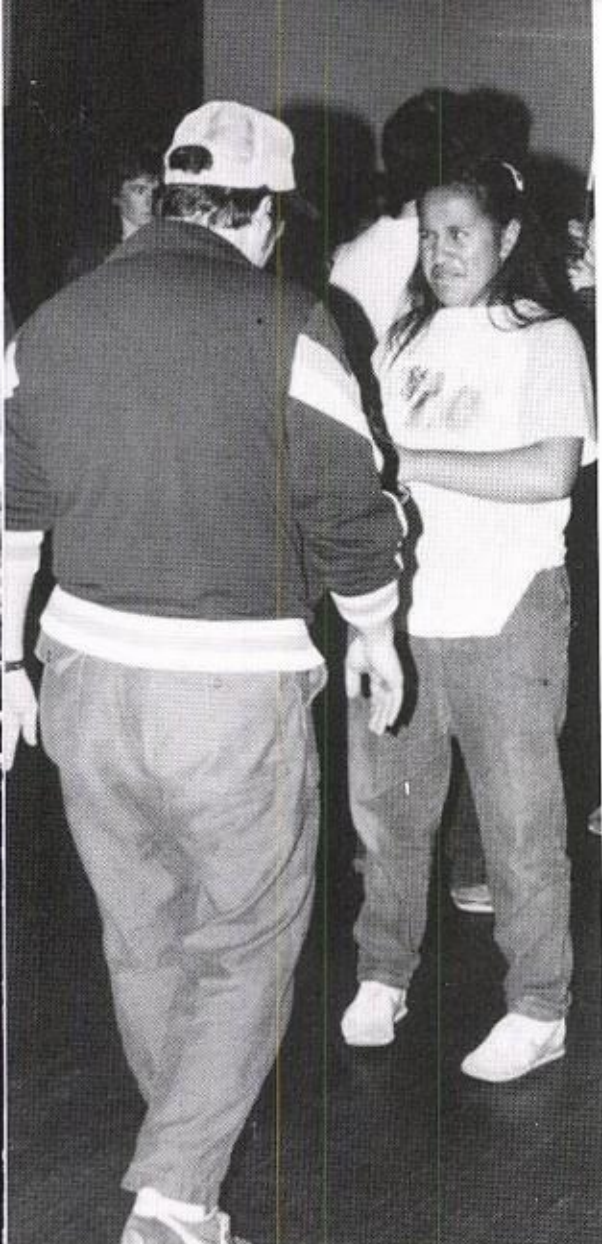

Intersession is a time to take a break from the everyday reading, writing, and arithmetic classes taught at Mercy. It is a chance for each Mercy girl to open her mind to something new. It may be a different art or a new trade, or a chance to travel. It's a chance to bring the school closer together because you meet girls you may not have in your classes. It's an opportunity for the teachers to prove to the girls that they are people who do things other than correct papers.

FROM PASSION TO FASHION

Top Left: Gina Guerrero and Francia Escobar were well supplied with junk food for the long trip to Monterey. Top Right: Annette DeBono experienced a moment of indecision before entering the van. Left: Mary Petroff and Kelly Harrington laboriously animate their film. Bottom Left: Collette Mares is fascinated by the sounds of vintage rock'n roll. OPPOSITE PAGE. Top: Jazzercise students raise their hands during a complicated dance step. Center Left: Cecilia Delarrazabal really puts out the effort. Center Right: Daina Vererka can't help but admire her partners work. Bottom Left: Carla Nieri seems quite pleased with her improved handwriting. Bottom Right: Dena Kotsopolous takes instruction on the finer points of calligraphy.

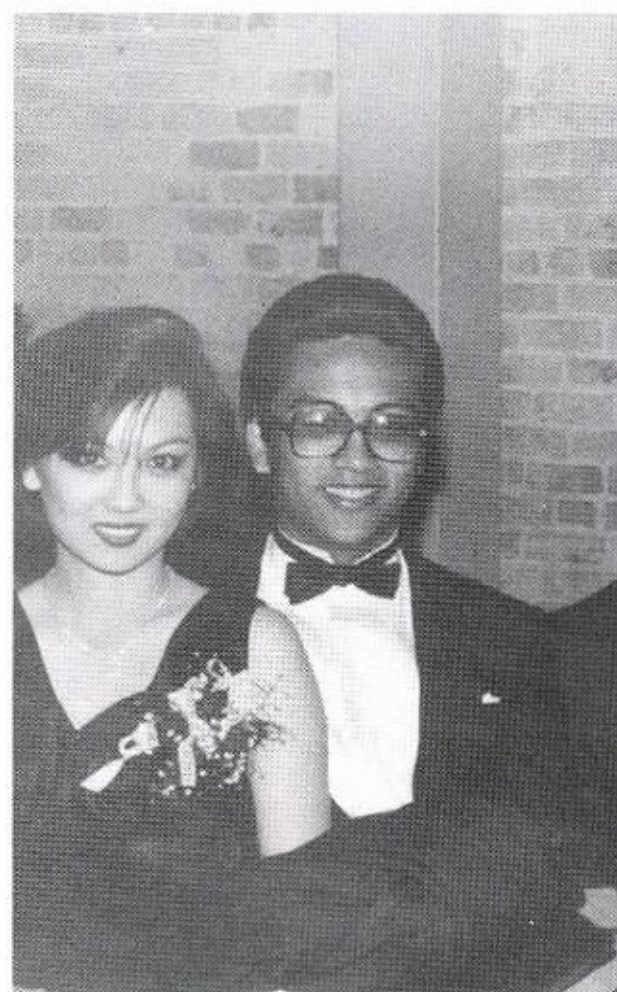

The trips ranged from skiing in Tahoe to hiking in Yosemite, or animal watching in San Diego to roughing it in Mountain Living. The girls who went to Los Ninos helped young Mexican children in an orphanage and the Monterey trip discovered the beauty of a great city. Girls who were REALLY fortunate went to England, Hawaii, and the Carribean. It was hard to get back into the swing of things after intersession was over but, there is always the excitement for the sophomores, freshmen, faculty, and administration until the next intersession.

RED

The date was January 20th 1984, approximately 400 people were getting ready to go out and have a good time. They were heading to Mercy High School's annual Red and White Ball. They danced the night away at the Gallaria to the sounds of KITS. Some memorable notes were the unforgettable background used by the photographer, and the attempt to tear down the British flag. The evening was a memorable one in many ways for all who attended.

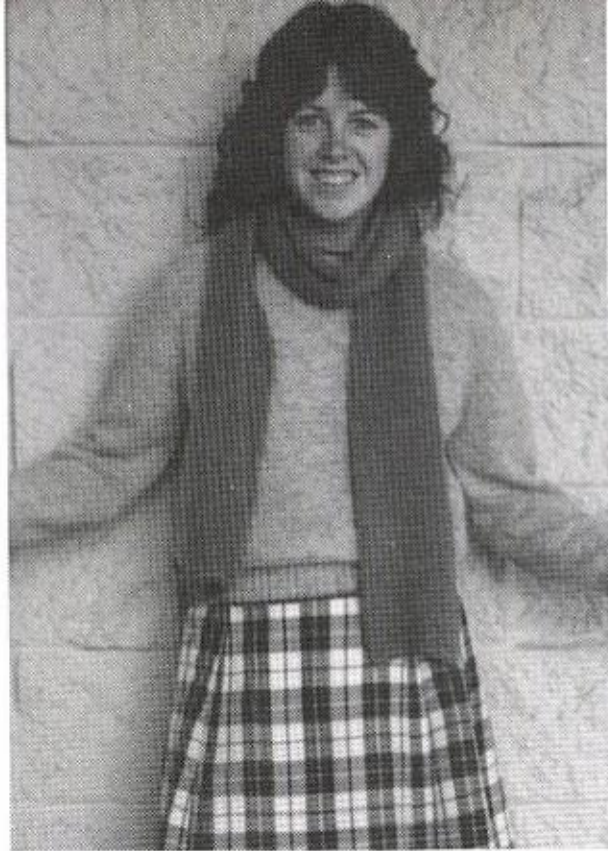

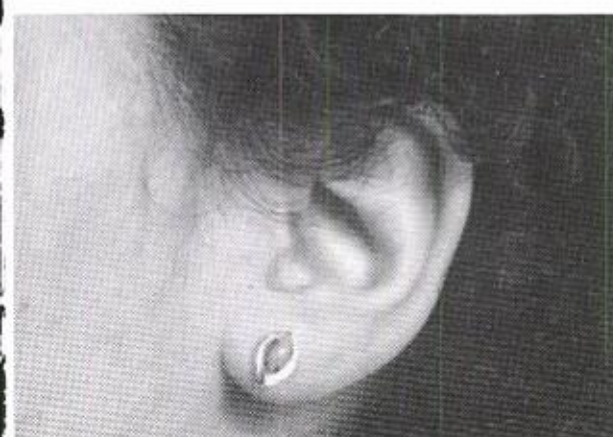

GAA FALL AWARDS DINNER

The awards dinner for the fall sports participants was an exciting evening for all the volleyball and tennis athletes, as well as, the spirit squad. Ms. Ortiz, Miss Lagomarsino, and Dan Gellerman were there to present the awards to all the stars.

WHAT'S IN WHAT'S OUT

"Oh, Mom how could you ever wear that?" In years to come these are the things we will probably be hearing. Everyday different things come to be "in style" and so that means something is "out". Today's fashions and ideas change so rapidly it's hard to keep up, but we thought we would dedicate a page to the styles of today. So, what's in and what's out? Diet Coke is definitely in and Tab is out. Big earrings are in, but so is double even triple ear piercings. Low boots are in and clogs are out. (But don't throw them out they will probably be back!) The Circle has been out for a couple of years, but if your looking for fun try The Boathouse! Will nutra-sweet be bad for us? And what about nuclear war? Is it in or out? I guess we'll just have to wait and see!

"Toot! Toot!" Could be heard as Seniors waved good-bye to their friends as the Blue and Gold fleet departed at 8:30 p.m. on Friday March 2 to Sail the Night Away. This would be the start to a great and interesting dance. It was tough to keep your balance while the camera snapped your picture but, the Seniors managed. Music Masters did a great job playing the hottest hits and everyone hopped and bopped to the beat and also tried to avoid flying life jackets. The dance ended sooner than everyone expected but all the better because that way everyone could be home before twelve o'clock.

This year Mercy High School presents, "The Sisters of Mercy." Many younger sisters followed in their senior sisters footsteps by becoming members of Mercy High Schools student body. Good luck Little sisters and congratulations to the seniors.

The class of 1986 proved on Feb. 19th that Girls Just Want To Have Fun! This was night of the Shop-hop and the first semi-formal dance for the sophomore class. Dressed in their best these Mercy girls dined with their dates and then went to Barret Hall to do the latest dances. After the dance these lively teenagers went to live it up.

On Feb. 14, Mercy girls gathered together in theatre to celebrate mass together. Red, white and pink was seen everywhere as the girls tightened their bond of friendship and discovered love from friends and family. It was a nice day for everyone and a good thing no one got HEARTburn from all the sweets.

On February 8th and 9th, fathers and daughters once again joined together for Mercy High School's annual Father-Daughter Dance. On this evening each girl's heart belonged to daddy as they watched the talent show together and then danced the night away to old and new songs. Fathers showed their daughters how to do their dances and the girls showed their pops how to flashdance and proved that the swim is still in. This night was enjoyed by all and the mothers club deserves a round of applause for putting this dance together. CLAP! CLAP! CLAP!
